

I TRIED TO MAKE YOU LOVE ME

ADAM

I promised the stars up in the sky, along with the moon
I bought you diamond rings made of solid gold
I made you a picnic every Sunday afternoon
I made you this promise: "I'll never let you go."

It seems to me that I've done everything I could
But if you showed me signs, I misunderstood

Cause I tried to make you love me but you just wouldn't listen
And I tried to make you care but you said you heard enough
So I told you that I loved you though you never believed me
And it all would have worked cause you know I tried to make you love me

Though you may say that you never had it so good
You found somebody else, and he satisfies
And though you don't think about me the way you used to do
There will come a time when you'll realize

That my love is what you need and what you're looking for You're gonna be sorry that you passed me by

And I tried to make you love me but you just wouldn't listen
And I tried to make you care but you said you heard enough
So I told you that I loved you though you never believed me
Yes it all could have worked cause you know I tried to make you love me

So many nights I was alone
I tried to love you
So impossible to get close
You were always far away

I tried to make you love me but you just wouldn't listen
I tried to make you care but you said you heard enough
And I told you that I loved you though you never believed me
Yes it all could have worked cause you know I tried to make you love me
