

NOTHING MORE

CAROLINE WEGENER/ADAM

Grey cloudy mornings, these nights will never end
This pain in my heart is something I can't defend Mem'ries remind me but can't help the way I feel
I know we said goodbye but now I've got to ask why

Cause I think about that night
And all the ways to say I'm sorry
But the truth is you don't love me
And you're not thinking of me
And though I'm still in love with you
There's nothing more that I can do

Rain poured down the window, it seemed to leak inside
The tone of your voice told me to give up this fight
We'd been through this before, but somehow I'd hoped things changed
Still, we said goodbye, and now I've got to ask why

Cause I think about that night
And all the ways to say I'm sorry
But the truth is you don't love me
And you're not thinking of me
And though I'm still in love with you
There's nothing more that I can do

Like it or not, I've got to face the fact you won't come back
I've got to force myself to believe you're really gone

And now I think about that night
And all the ways to say I'm sorry
But the truth is you don't love me
And you're not thinking of me
And though I'm still in love with you
There's nothing more that I can do

© 1994 Caroline Wegener (GEMA)/88 Keys Productions™ (ASCAP). All rights reserved. Do not copy, reproduce, distribute, or post on any website without prior authorization.